Little Black Dress: Selections from The Texas Fashion Collection and Works by Nancy Lamb

The Little Black Dress exhibition is organized by the Tyler Museum of Art in partnership with the Texas Fashion Collection of the University of North Texas College. It focuses on the concept of the 'little black dress', popularized by Gabrielle "Coco" Chanel in the 1920's. The various dresses and accessories are placed in context with Nancy Lamb's Social Spaces paintings.

The exhibition is open and will close on January 30, 2022.

Educational Activities and Events:

FAMILY DAY TO GO!

Family Day To Go Packets

Each second Saturday of the month, the TMA creates a free take-home-packet for students ranged from kindergarten to 12th grade. It includes themed art activities, art supplies, and a snack. All of the activities are compliant with the TEKS.

For January, the packets will be focusing on the remembering the life of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and celebrating the new year. The packets will be available for pick-up at the museum on January 8th, 2021.

Student Exhibitions:

Previous Best in Show:

17th Annual High School Art Exhibition

Alex Rodriguez, class of 2020 – 2021, acrylic and found objects, Sulphur Springs High School.

18th Annual High School Art Exhibition

The 18th Annual High School Art Exhibition is a yearly student exhibition held at the museum. High school teachers in the East Texas area submit their student's work to be exhibited in the museum's gallery.

The goal of this event is to showcase high school artwork and encourage the East Texas community to see the amazing artwork created by local students.

High school teachers need to email the museum at ranthony@tylermuseum.org to let the education department know you want to participate in the event. Teachers can also call the museum at: (903) – 595 – 1001.

After you contact the education department or you receive an email from the museum inquiring your interest, you will receive the exhibition entry form and the art format requirements.

Participating teachers need to bring their selected student artwork to the museum between February 21st, 2022 and March 4th, 2022.
