Student Exhibitions:

2023 Día de los Muertos Art Exhibition

This exhibition is an annual event held at the museum. Students between the grade levels of 5th grade – 8th grade are eligible to participate.

The art activity is to be determined by the teacher and can be either a 3D or a 2D project. Examples of the artworks include: ofrendas, alebrijes, and other artworks that depict the iconography or culture of the holiday.

The teacher will select 30 – 35 pieces from each participating grade level to deliver to the museum. The artwork will be delivered to the museum between October 9, 2023 – October 22, 2023.

The exhibition will be free and open to the public from October 29, 2023 – November 5, 2023. The museum will hold a reception for the event.

5th – 8th grade teachers need to email the museum at ranthony@tylERMuseum.org to let the education department know you want to participate in the event.
