The Art of Texas State Parks

The Art of Texas State Parks exhibition showcases a selection of artworks depicting different Texas State Parks. Artists from across the state captured iconic views of the varied Texas landscape. These works often include wildlife, visitors, and human structures built within the parks. The exhibition serves to celebrate the rich environments and ecosystems of the state.

The exhibition is currently open, and it will close on January 5, 2025.

Forward Facing:
A Look at Contemporary Portraiture

Forward Facing: A Look at Contemporary Portraiture features four artists who create modern portraits. The exhibition features works by: Guadalupe Hernandez, Delita Martin, Raul Rene Gonzalez, and Yasuyo Maruyama. The collection of portraits celebrate the culture and history of the artists and the people they represent.

The exhibition is currently open, and it will close on December 1, 2024.

Educational Activities and Events:

Family Day: In Person

The Tyler Museum of Art's Family Day program is held every second Saturday of the month from 1:00pm – 4:00pm at the museum. The event will have art activities for children and students of all ages, art books to read for all ages, coloring pages of the museum's permanent collection, and snacks. All art activities are compliant with the TEKS. Additionally, all Family Day participants will get free admission to the exhibitions.

For November, the art activity will be an animal diorama activity that is inspired by Texas State Parks Exhibition. The event will be held at the museum on November 9, 2024 between 1:00pm – 4:00pm.
