Exhibitions

Keith Carter's Peaceable Kingdom: Photographs from the Wittliff Collections

Keith Carter's Peaceable Kingdom: Photographs from the Wittliff Collections features a selection of animals, people, and landscapes. These scenes inspire the viewer's imagination to build a connection to the folkloric imagery.

The exhibition is currently open, and it will close on September 6, 2026.

Art After School

The Tyler Museum of Art's Art After School event is held on the third Thursday of the month beginning in August and ending in May. The program will coincide with the academic school year. Students and families will have access to free art activities and light refreshments.

For September, the art activity will be a notan design. The event will be held on September 17, 2026 between 3:00pm – 5:00pm. Children should remain accompanied at all times.

If you have any questions about this program or any other educational event at the museum, email ranthony@tylermuseum.org or call at 903-595-1001.

TMA Lesson Plans for Elementary, Middle School, and High School

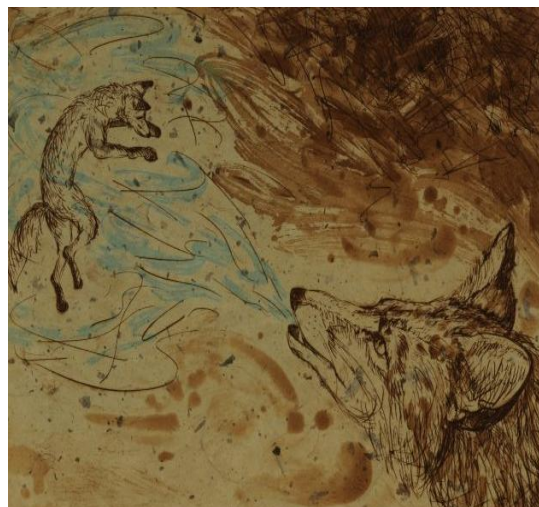

Lesson Plan:

Michael Kennaugh, Twisting Skies

This lesson plan contains the National Learning Standards for Visual Arts and the Texas TEKS for Elementary, Middle, and High School art teachers. The students will study Michael Kennaugh's non-objective abstract collage titled Twisted Skies. Specifically, the class will discuss how Kennaugh takes a concept and plans how to represent this idea through abstracted elements. Afterwards, the students will create a non-objective abstract collage that represents a person, animal, place, or concept.

Student Exhibitions:

2026 Día de los Muertos Art Exhibition

This exhibition is an annual event held at the museum. Students between the grade levels of 5th grade – 8th grade are eligible to participate.

The art activity is to be determined by the teacher and can be either a 3D or a 2D project. Examples of the artworks include: ofrendas, alebrijes, and other artworks that depict the iconography or culture of the holiday.

The teacher will select 30 pieces from each participating grade level to deliver to the museum. The artwork will be delivered to the museum between October 5, 2026 – October 18, 2026.

The exhibition will be free and open to the public from October 25, 2026 – November 1, 2026. The museum will hold a reception for the event.

5th – 8th grade teachers need to email the museum at ranthony@tylERMuseum.org to let the education department know you want to participate in the event.
